PLANCKENDAEL

Nederlands:

Randy Beck heeft vele tientallen marsen geschreven, waarvan er nog velen op het repertoire staan van vele korpsen in tientallen landen. Hij had zelf ook zijn favoriete marsen en PLANCKENDAEL hoorde daar beslist bij. Het is een fijne mars, op alle onderdelen goed in het gehoor liggend. Dit blijft nog lang een topper voor het marsrepertoire!

RANDY BECK

Nederlands:

Randy Beck, pseudoniem voor Frans Verbeeck, is geboren te Tisselt (België) op 12 september 1926 en overleden te Merksplas (België) op 5 oktober 2000. Als jongen van acht jaar speelde hij reeds piston in de plaatselijke fanfare van Tisselt "Willen Is Kunnen". Dit orkest werd toen gedirigeerd door zijn grootvader; later zou zijn vader de dirigeerstok overnemen en daarna heeft ook Frans deze fanfare geleid. Hij volgde lessen vanaf 1936 aan de Muziekacademie te Willebroek en later aan het Conservatorium van Mechelen. Vanaf 1948 is hij beroepsmuzikant als trompet-solist en arrangeur bij de orkesten van Willy Rockin en Leo Martin. Hij treedt op in vele Europese landen met beroemde artiesten als Charles Trenet, Frank Sinatra, Billy Eckstein en vele anderen. In 1960 wordt hij artistiek directeur van een platenmaatschappij en maakt hij grondig kennis met alle aspecten van de amusementsmuziek. Vandaar uit krijgt hij opnieuw belangstelling voor de wereld van de harmonie- en fanfaremuziek. Hij begint met het schrijven van enkele marsen en heeft daar direct veel succes mee. Vanaf eind jaren zestig gaat Tierolff Muziekcentrale zijn werken uitgeven. Uit de jaren zeventig zijn toppers te noemen als de marsen "Over and Out", "Miami" en "Planckendael", terwijl zijn "Mexican Trumpets" in zowat heel Europa een daverend succes is. Ook zijn heften uit de serie "Melody Makers (deel 1 tot en met 5)" zijn overal verkocht. Later komen er successen als "El Dorado" en de mars "Stand By", terwijl in de negentiger jaren speciaal zijn "Castles in Spain" en mars "Check Point" enorme toppers zijn. Ook als arrangeur geniet Randy Beck een grote reputatie, met uitschieters als "In the Mood", "Music" en vele medleys zoals "Dixieland Selecties", "Latin Sounds", "Gershwin for Everyone", "Marching through America", enz. In 1999 componeerde hij samen met Rita Defoort, Wim Laseroms en John Nimbly de "Centennial"-mars t.g.v. het 100-jarig bestaan van Tierolff Muziekcentrale. Zijn laatste twee werken – de paso-doble "Torre de Fuego" en de mars "On Line" – zijn opgenomen op de cd Tierolff for Band, no. 10 – "Tumaco" in 2000. Randy Beck was ook betrokken bij de opnamen voor 10 cd's voor Tierolff, nog tot en met het voorjaar van 2000. Zijn heengaan laat niet alleen een enorme leegte achter bij zijn familie, maar ook bij uitgever Tierolff!

English:

Randy Beck, alias from Frans Verbeeck, was born in Tisselt (Belgium) on September 12th 1926 and died on October 5th 2000 in Merksplas (Belgium). As a boy from eight years old he already played the cornet in his local fanfare band of Tisselt. This band was conducted by his grandfather, after which his father would lead this band and later on Frans himself became conductor of this band. Beck attended music school lessons from 1936 at the Music Academy in Willebroek and later on at the Conservatory of Mechelen. From 1948 he is a professional musician as trumpet soloist and arranger for the well-known orchestras from Willy Rockin and Leo Martin. He performs in many European countries with famous artists such as Charles Trenet, Frank Sinatra and Billy Eckstein. In 1960 he becomes artistic director of a record company which makes him very familiar with entertainment music. This revives his interest in band music too. He starts writing some marches that are an immediate success. From the late sixties Tierolff Muziekcentrale starts publishing his works. Some highlights from the seventies are the marches "Over and Out", "Miami" and "Planckendael" and his "Mexican Trumpets" is a huge success all over Europe. Also his band books "Melody Makers" (vol. 1 – 5) are top sellers. These successes are followed by pieces such as "El Dorado" and the march "Stand By" and in nineties "Castles in Spain" and the march "Check Point" are big hits. Randy Beck is also famous for his arrangements, having arranged pieces such as "In the Mood", "Music" and many medleys such as "Dixieland Selections", "Latin Sounds", "Gershwin for Everyone", "Marching through America" and many more. In 1999 he composed the "Centennial"-march together with Rita Defoort, Wim Laseroms and John Nimbly for the occasion of the 100th Anniversary of Tierolff Muziekcentrale. His last two pieces – the paso-doble "Torre de Fuego" and the march "On Line" – are recorded on the CD Tierolff for Band, no. 10 – "Tumaco" in 2000. Randy Beck was also involved during the recording of 10 CD's for Tierolff, even in early 2000. His passing away was a great loss both to his family as well as to publisher Tierolff!

Randy Beck, alias Frans Verbeeck, wurde am 12. September 1926 in Tisselt, Belgien, geboren und verstarb am 5. Oktober 2000 in Merksplas, Belgien. Im Alter von acht Jahren spielte er schon das Kornett im lokalen Fanfarenorchester „Willen is Kunnen“ welches damals von seinem Großvater dirigiert wurde. Anschließend dirigierte auch sein Vater, bevor Frans selber den Taktstock übernahm. Ab 1936 studierte er an der Musikschule von Willebroek und später am Musikkonservatorium von Mechelen. 1948 wurde er Berufsmusiker; er spielte Trompete und war Arrangeur für die Unterhaltungsorchester von Willy Rockin und Leo Martin. Er trat in vielen europäischen Ländern auf und begleitete berühmte Künstler, wie z.B. Charles Trenet, Frank Sinatra und Billy Eckstein. 1960 wurde er Musikdirektor bei einer Schallplattenfirma und machte sich mit allen Aspekten der Unterhaltungsmusik bekannt. So erwachte wieder das Interesse für die Welt der Blasmusik und er schrieb einige schmissige Märsche die unmittelbar sehr erfolgreich waren. Seit den späten sechziger Jahren verlegt Tierolff seine Blasmusikkompositionen. In den siebziger Jahren gab es große Erfolge wie die Märsche „Over and Out“, „Miami“ und „Planckendael“: Auch seine Komposition „Mexican Trumpets“ war überall in Europa sehr erfolgreich. Die Hefte der Serie „Melody Makers“ (in fünf Teilen) wurden in zahlreichen Ländern viel verkauft. Später gab es Erfolge wie „El Dorado“ und den Marsch „Stand By“, in den neunziger Jahren das Stück „Castles in Spain“ und der Marsch „Check Point“ welche wahre Verkaufsschlager waren. Randy Beck war auch ein ganz erfolgreicher Arrangeur; absolute Spitzenleistungen waren die Arrangements von „In the Mood“ und „Music“ ebenso wie die Medleys „Dixieland Selection“, „Latin Sounds“, „Gershwin for everyone“ und „Marching through America“. 1999 komponierte er in Zusammenarbeit mit Rita Defoort, Wim Laseroms und John Nimbly den „Centennial Marsch“ anlässlich der Jahrhundertfeier des Verlags Tierolff Muziekcentrale. Seine letzte Kompositionen, der Pasodoble „Torre de Fuego“ und der Marsch „On Line“ sind auf die CD Tierolff for Band 10 (Tumaco) eingespielt worden. Randy Beck war auch Tonmeister für zehn CD Aufnahmen von Tierolff, und zum letzten Mal noch im Frühjahr 2000. Sein Tod hinterließ nicht nur bei seiner Familie, sondern auch beim Verleger Tierolff eine schmerzliche Lücke.
